

Historical Girls Book Club

Tutor: Sarah Daisy Lindmark

Ages: 8-12 Hour: 4th Email: SarahDaisyArtWorld@gmail.com

Course Description

Join us in Historical Girls Book Club class to meet new friends, read and discuss a variety of books about amazing girls from history, create beautiful and treasured art projects and crafts, and play friendship building games and challenges. Through the eyes and words of author Laura Ingalls Wilder (Little House on the Prairie) and various American Girl book authors, we'll learn about how girls lived during different time periods here in America. We will start in the colonial times of 1770's with AG Felicity Merriman, then the American Southwest in the 1820's with AG Josefina Montoya, then the Civil War era in the 1860's with Addy Walker, then the pioneer days of 1870's with Laura Ingalls Wilder, then the turn of the century in the early 1900's with AG Samantha Parkington, and finish off with the Great Depression in the 1930's with AG Kit Kittredge. That's a lot of history to cover! And, we'll learn it all in a fun and friendship-filled way. I hope your daughter will join us on our journey as we explore history, grow in communication and knowledge, and nurture sweet friendships.

Meet the Tutor

Sarah Daisy Lindmark has homeschooled her daughters for 11+ years, and this will be her 10th year teaching classes. She has a BA in K-12 Art Education with an emphasis in Photojournalism and Special Education from The University of Montana. She loves to take photographs of everything interesting and beautiful, go camping with her family, design and create art projects, treasure hunt at thrift stores, play the African djembe drum, and drink good coffee.

And, all of these things are best done along side her sweet little dog, Violet.
